The I Am Peacekeeper Movement has always held this truth at its centre — that the pursuit of peace must be grounded in a recognition of our shared humanity, across every faith, every creed and every culture.

The Conclave witnessed a celebration of that belief — a moment in which the voices of many traditions rose together in a single, harmonious affirmation.

Art For Lives

We believe that art is not just creativity — it is a message of peace, truth, love, and humanity.

In Art For Lives, near 60% of the artwork proceeds will be donated to support surgical operations and help those in need, because our mission is not only to paint peace... but to create a real impact in people's lives.

Ms. Zahabiya Khorakiwala, MD, Wockhardt Hospitals spoke at the Billionaires For Peace Conclave to explain our sincere initiative – merging art with helping the needy.

The I Am Peacekeeper Movement thanks Prachi Kapoor & Tirthraj Sinh Zala of Artura Spaces and Uday Dholakia, for their committed curations and support to the initiative.
