I Am Peacekeeper @ Zoom With MR. SONU SOOD

Respected
Mr. Sonu Sood

Indian actor, film producer, model, humanitarian

Hosted by
Dr. Huzaiifa Khorakiwala

I Am Peacekeeper @ Zoom with Mr. Sonu Sood - Indian actor, film producer, model, humanitarian, and philanthropist known for his work in turning compassion into action through the Sood Charity Foundation, aiding in safe return journeys, livelihoods, education, healthcare, and support for senior citizens.

The I Am Peacekeeper @ Zoom session highlighted Dr. Khorakiwala's view that true peace arises when people feel supported, dignified, and assured they are not alone. It celebrated Sonu Sood's humanitarian work, especially his role in helping over 750,000 stranded migrants return home during the COVID-19 pandemic. His memoir I Am No Messiah reflects his belief that service is not about performance or publicity, but about being practically present for those in need. Sood described how working closely with ordinary people reshaped his idea of success, teaching him that saving lives and becoming a source of hope is the highest form of achievement.

The discussion also explores Sood's personal turning point, when encountering migrant families inspired him to commit to helping every stranded person he could. He emphasized staying non-judgmental by seeing people as "God-sent," maintaining humility through his roots, family, and support for small businesses, and embracing service as a lifelong responsibility. He advocated teaching generosity in schools and constantly reminds young people that anyone can help, regardless of wealth or fame. The session closed with a poetic message by Mr. Sood on the lasting power of good deeds, as Dr. Khorakiwala thanked Sood for his compassion and Sood committed himself to the I Am Peacekeeper mission until his final breath.
